IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL NOTICE

Dear CBR600RR Owner:

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

What is the reason for this notice?

Honda Motor Co., Ltd. has decided that a defect relating to motor vehicle safety exists in 2003-2004 model year CBR600RR motorcycles. The rear brake linkage is susceptible to corrosion, which can cause binding and rough brake operation. As corrosion increases, it can cause a sticking pedal or require high brake pedal effort. Degrading brake performance should be noticeable to the rider. In the worst case, the linkage could break, resulting in a loss of rear brake function, which could result in a crash.

What should you do?

Call any authorized Honda motorcycle dealer and make an appointment to have your CBR600RR repaired. The dealer will replace certain parts in the rear brake linkage. This work will be done free of charge. Please plan to leave your motorcycle for the day to allow the dealer flexibility in scheduling.

Who to contact if you experience problems.

If you are not satisfied with the service you receive from your Honda dealer, you may write to:

American Honda Motor Co., Inc.

If you believe that American Honda or the dealer has failed or is unable to remedy the defect in your motorcycle, without charge, within a reasonable period of time (60 days from the date you first contact the dealer for a repair appointment), you may submit a complaint to:

Administrator
National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
400 Seventh Street, SW
Washington, DC 20590

Or call the toll-free Safety Hotline at (888) 327-4236.

What to do if you feel this notice is in error.

Our records show that you are the current owner of a 2003-2004 CBR600RR involved in this recall. If this is not the case, or the name/address information is not correct, please fill out and return the enclosed, postage-paid Information Change Card. We will then update our records.

If you paid to have a defective rear brake linkage repaired sometime in the past, you may be eligible for reimbursement. Refer to the attached Request for Reimbursement for eligibility requirements and the reimbursement procedure.
